Thus far in the council, I have been responsible for participating in SLC meetings and representing the ideas of my grade, and introducing the rising Freshman to our school in a positive light through the Freshman Orientation (Verified by District Verification Form)..

IV. Community Activities [Non-School Based] – List community activities [non-school-based] in which you have participated and note the years in which you completed them and any major accomplishments in each. Activity	Year				Accomplishments
	9	10	11	12
Information Sessions (All)		X	X		Ever since my eligibility in sophomore year, I have volunteered at every single information session, and at each one, I am able to show new faces how great AIT is, and I answer whatever questions that the visiting families may have. I make sure that all feel welcome and that all leave smiling, and I am confident that many families that I toured and talked to are current freshman at AIT (Verified by District Verification Form).
Freshman Orientation		X	X		At the two freshman orientations, I was able to show rising Freshman how great the AIT community could be, and give them advice in order to thrive in our school. I still remember each of the freshmen that I gave a personal tour to, and each of them are thriving in our amazing AIT culture (Verified by District Verification Form).
Relay For Life	X	X	X		Relay for Life is one of my favorite service activities, and I look forward to it each year. I have many personal ties to cancer, so raising money to fight the disease and have fun with my friends for a night is always fun. Last year, my team was the highest fundraising team, and I was happy to be part of such a dedicated group of people, and proud that my friends also cared about the cause, whether they had relations to it or not (Verified by District Verification Form).

VI. Work Experience, Recognition, and Awards – List any job experiences, honors, or recognition that you have received aside from those required by your program’s curriculum, like certifications, that support candidacy for membership in the National Honor Society. Student of The Month	X	X			In March of Freshman year and December of Sophomore year, the AIT faculty nominated me to be the Student of the Month. I was very grateful to receive the nomination, and I believe it was because of my strong classroom performance, and my assistance to others, helping them understand concepts they may not have fully comprehended previously (Can be verified by the office).
High Honor Roll(X6) Honor Roll(X2)	X	X			Due to my studying and hard work put towards school in and out of the classroom, I was able to earn high honor roll three times and honor roll once for both Freshman and Sophomore year. I am proud that I have only received two marking period Bs throughout the years, but understand that I will need to keep up the hard work in order to maintain this high average in Junior and Senior year (Can be verified by the office).
Summer Camp Counselor	X	X			After being a counselor in training in the summer of eighth grade, I became a counselor in the summers of ninth and tenth grade at Princeton Day School(PDS) Summer Programs. There are many camps involved with PDS Summer Programs, such as tennis, mountain biking, sports spectacular, chess, and many more. I was the counselor for outdoor camps, which was slightly harder than the indoor camps because I needed to ensure kids’ safety while not infringing upon their time for fun. In mountain biking camp, we rode to a rock perfect for climbing, but as it was raining, I stood as a base and helped the campers get a head start, but also caught them if they were slipping (Verified by Rose Price via e-mail. She is sending the character e-mail, so I figured that will be plenty of verification).

Counselor of the Week		X		Last summer, PDS Summer Programs started awarding counselors with the "Counselor of the Week" award. My camp instructor nominated me for the award due to my commitment towards helping the campers and my positive interactions with the campers (Rose Price, my boss, is sending the character e-mail so I am not sure if this will be included in it. Apologies if there is no verification).

VII. Candidate Statement – In a short statement of 500 to 750 words, share a story or life experience that has helped to define your character?
